Husbands Love Your Wives

Introduction

- I. Text: Eph 5:25-33
- II. If we are talking about lessons that are practical — lessons that have every day applications — perhaps no lesson could be more so than Paul's command to husbands: "...love your wives."

Discussion

- I. Jesus commands those of us who are husbands to _____ our wives.
 - A. The apostle Paul is the one who penned this command, but that really means that _____ is teaching it... Gal 1:11-12; 1 Th 2:13; 1 Cor 14:37
 - B. _____ taught us this principle through Paul's pen... Eph 5:25,28,33; Col 3:19
 - C. We must not allow His commandment to be _____ or _____ in our minds.
- II. Jesus teaches husbands _____ we are to love their wives.
 - A. Jesus teaches husbands to love our wives like He loves His _____ ... Eph 5:25-27
 - B. Jesus teaches husbands to love their wives as we love their own _____ ... Eph 5:28-29
 - C. Jesus teaches us to love our wives as we love _____ ... Eph 5:28,33
- III. Jesus commands husbands to _____ this love for our wives... 1 Jn 3:18
 - A. Suppose a husband claims that he loves his wife, but then he _____ her for another?
 - B. Suppose a husband claims that he loves his wife, but he publicly and privately _____ and _____ her?
 - C. Suppose a husband claims that he loves his wife, but he _____ on himself while _____ the money she spends on herself?
 - D. Suppose a husband claims that he loves his wife like himself, but instead of using his _____ to make decisions in the best interest of wife/family, he never _____ her or considers how she feels about family decisions.

Conclusion

- I. Husbands, honestly and candidly ask yourself: "Do I love my wife the way the Bible teaches me to love her?"
- II. If your attitude hasn't been right, if you haven't been loving your wife as Jesus commands you to, you _____ and _____, and the time to make up mind to change is now!
