The Resurrection and BEYOND

Introduction

- I. There is one thing that ties all scripture together. It gives importance to the way we live, and it motivates all of our decisions and life choices. This event is Jesus' resurrection from the dead.
 - A. What is the significance of this resurrection?
 1. He died as a sacrifice, the unblemished Lamb of God.
 2. He was raised never to die again.
 3. His being raised up was a death blow to Satan.
 4. He was the first of those that would be raised up like Him.
- II. We are going to look specifically at what Paul says in 1 Cor 15 this morning.
 - A. Paul in his defense of the resurrection from the dead makes several points that we need to be reminded of each day. So that we will walk in a manner worthy of the gospel.

Discussion

- I. We have _____ through the resurrection (15.1-4)
- II. There were _____ to prove Jesus was _____ (15.5-11)
- III. No resurrection means our _____ has no value (15.12-19)
- IV. The resurrection proves Christ will be _____ (15.20-28)
- V. So, we must ____ daily (15.29-34)
- VI. We will be raised _____ to die _____ (15.35-57)
- VII. This hope means we _____ each day with a _____ (15.58)

Conclusion

- I. The gospel was and is for all. That is why Jesus died and was raised.
 - A. Through Jesus we have eternal life.
- II. We have to see the value of eternity or we will never live as God intended.
 - A. On what is your faith based?
